Gekken Sho
with Rajguru Sensei

November 2 and 3, 2019

Itto Tenshin-ryu Taikai 2019

Itten Dojo is honored to host Rajguru Sensei for the 2019 Taikai of the Itto Tenshin-ryu, to be held on the 2nd and 3rd of November. All members of the Itto Tenshin-ryu and Yamate-ryu, as well as guests from outside the ryu, are cordially invited to participate. The seminar will be held at the facilities of Itten Dojo in Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania, and nearby hotel accommodations have been arranged at TownePlace Suites by Marriott.

The focus for this Taikai will be Gekken Sho.

Doors will open at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday the 2nd; the Taikai will begin promptly at 10:00 a.m. and conclude at 5:00 p.m. on Sunday. There will be an etiquette and safety training session Saturday morning at 9:00 a.m. — this training is mandatory for any junior students that have not yet passed an initial examination.

Lunch is included in the seminar registration fee and will be served on-site. Participants are encouraged to bring additional water or sports drinks for themselves.

All participants should have a proper, traditional Japanese training uniform and zori (sandals), clean and in good repair. Each participant must also possess a properly maintained bokken (wooden sword) — preferably, an Itto Tenshin-ryu Bokken (sometimes referred to as a Gekken Bokken).

Several social events are planned: An informal dinner will be held Saturday evening in the Jubilee Room at TownePlace Suites, and on Sunday evening a formal, black-tie dinner will be held at 1700 Degrees Steakhouse in the Harrisburg Hilton — details can be found on the following page.

In order to assure adequate time for providing counts to caterers and the restaurant, paid administrative fees and black-tie dinner registrations must be submitted no later than October 23rd, 2019, preferably by means of the PayPal link on the registration page of the Itten Dojo website.

If additional information is required, please call Itten Dojo at 717.766.8871 or contact via email Robert Wolfe at ittendojocho@cs.com.
